

Youth Pleads Guilty To Slaying Charge

LEWISTON (AP) — A 16-year-old high school junior pleaded guilty to first degree murder Thursday for the slaying of his uncle in a $140 service station robbery March 20.

District Judge John Cramer did not pass sentence immediately on young Donald Keeler of Kendrick. He asked the youth if he understood "you can hang for this".

"Yes," Keeler replied. The boy admitted shooting his uncle, Louis Conrad, 62, in the robbery of Conrad's service station here so he could "get money like other kids." Keeler, whose parents are divorced, spent the money on a trip to Washington state and was broke when arrested in his high school classroom.

His mother, Mrs. J. T. Taylor, Spokane, and Conrad's widow were present at the arraignment Thursday.

A 16-year-old high school junior pleaded guilty to first degree murder for the slaying of his uncle in a $140 service station robbery March 20.

District Judge John Cramer did not pass sentence immediately on young Donald Keeler of Kendrick. He asked the youth if he understood "you can hang for this".

"Yes," Keeler replied.

The boy admitted shooting his uncle, Louis Conrad, 62, in the robbery of Conrad's service station here so he could "get money like other kids." Keeler, whose parents are divorced, spent the money on a trip to Washington state and was broke when arrested in his high school classroom.

His mother, Mrs. J. T. Taylor, Spokane, and Conrad's widow were present at the arraignment Thursday.

Twin Falls Times, April 22, 1953, page 14

Youth Given Life Term for Slaying

LEWISTON, April 22 (AP)—A slim 16-year-old high school junior was sentenced Tuesday to life in prison for the "most cruel" murder of his uncle during a $140 service station robbery.

The youth, Donald Keeler, stood calmly as sentence was pronounced by Judge W. Cramer who said the boy's "lack of remorse makes the problem more difficult."

Asked if he had anything to say, young Keeler replied firmly, "No sir."

Keeler, whose parents are divorced, had pleaded guilty to first degree murder for shooting his uncle, Louis Conrad, 62, during a robbery of Conrad's service station here last month.

A slim 16-year-old high school junior was sentenced Tuesday to life in prison for the "most cruel" murder of his uncle during a $140 service station robbery.

The youth, Donald Keeler, stood calmly as sentence was pronounced by Judge W. Cramer who said the boy's "lack of remorse makes the problem more difficult."

Asked if he had anything to say, young Keeler replied firmly, "No sir."

Keeler, whose parents are divorced, had pleaded guilty to first degree murder for shooting his uncle, Louis Conrad, 62, during a robbery of Conrad's service station here last month.

Twin Falls Times, April 28, 1953, page 6

Boy, 16, Enters Prison in Boise

BOISE, April 28 (AP)—Donald Keeler, 16, Kendrick, has entered the Idaho state prison on a life sentence for the slaying of his uncle, Louis E. Conrad, 62, Warden L. E. Clapp said Monday.

Keeler pleaded guilty to fatally shooting Conrad during a service station holdup near Lewiston March 20.

Donald Keeler, 16, Kendrick, has entered the Idaho state prison on a life sentence for the slaying of his uncle, Louis E. Conrad, 62, Warden L.E. Clapp said Monday.

Keeler pleaded guilty to fatally shooting Conrad during a service station holdup near Lewiston March 20.

Nampa Idaho Free Press, April 30, 1953,

Youthful Slayer Enters Prison

BOISE (AP) — A 16-year-old Kendrick youth has entered the Idaho Penitentiary to begin serving a life sentence for the murder of his uncle in the holdup of a Lewiston gasoline station.

Donald Keeler had pleaded guilty to firing the shot which killed Louis E. Conrad, 62.

page 5

A 16-year-old Kendrick youth has entered the Idaho Penitentiary to begin serving a life sentence for the murder of his uncle in the holdup of a Lewiston gasoline station. Donald Keeler had pleaded guilty to firing the shot which killed Louis E. Conrad, 62.